CITY OF MEDICINE

LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

The Bond Referendum passed and we are so excited! I first want to thank the community for voting yes! That tells me that you are in support of what we are doing and want to see more of it! Now that it has passed, we want you to be aware of the progress that we are making. To find out about our progress, visit the Capital Improvements Program Projects page on the city's website at <http://www.durhamnc.gov/cip/>.

A couple of weeks ago, the DPR staff had a retreat to celebrate our accomplishments, revisit our mission and to set goals for 2006. We wanted to make sure that our mission statement reflects the true values of Durham. In that discussion we decided to make a change. We want to continue to provide you with recreational choices that contribute to your physical, emotional and social well being. With that in mind, we drafted the following mission statement, "DPR provides opportunities for our community to Play More!" When you think of recreation, we want you to think of us!

As you browse through this publication, you will see that we offer balanced programs, events and activities. Whether young or well seasoned (smile) mature, traditional or non-traditional, the needs of one are just as important as those of many. We have developed various programs that we think you and your family will enjoy. There is something for everyone. There are literally hundreds of ways for you to PLAY MORE!

Be sure to visit one of our 65 parks, participate in events at our recreation centers, exercise at one of our indoor pools or play in one of our many sports leagues. There's no end to what you can do! But most of all have fun doing it! As I end with all of my letters, thank you for your continued support!

Darrell R. Crittendon, Director
Durham Parks and Recreation

A Parent's Journey to DPR's Summer Camp

For over 80 years the City of Durham's Parks and Recreation Department has been providing recreational opportunities to the community through programs such as Summer Day Camp, Fun Days, and most recently Intercession Camp. DPR programs offer a safe, inclusive environment where all children are encouraged to participate. We are committed to the development of our campers' life skills through group activities and exposure to diverse athletic and educational experiences.

Campers in DPR's Summer programs have the opportunity to participate in a wide range of activities that include but are not limited to swimming, arts & crafts, computer enrichment, environmental education, dance, athletic games, and much more. Emphasis is placed on trying new things, teamwork, learning by doing and enjoying the process of discovery.

We hope that your child will join in our summer programs. Please see the list of steps that you must take to make your registration process easy.

What are the Benefits of Accreditation?

Earlier this year Durham Parks and Recreation (DPR) embarked upon a two-year process of gaining National Accreditation. There are 155 accreditation standards that determine guidelines for operations, programming and development. These standards are statements of desirable practices established by experienced and recognized professionals such as the National Recreation & Parks Association and Commission of Accredited Parks & Recreation Agencies. DPR is concerned with the efficiency, effectiveness, and professionalism of its operating systems, which provides opportunities for our community to Play More.

Throughout the self-assessment phase of accreditation, DPR staff will compare internal processes and operating procedures with common practices in the field of leisure and recreation. The department must meet all 36 of the fundamental standards and 85 % of the remaining 119 standards. This analysis and the creation of quality leisure services have the potential to benefit individuals, the community and the economy.

Potential individual benefits are enhanced psychological well-being and improved quality of life. It is our vision to provide opportunities for members of the community to have fun and a sense of accomplishment, reduce stress and find outlets for stimulation. Not only can participating in a leisure activity be satisfying, but it can also provide a sense of adventure, an outlet for creativity and a balance between work and play. The individual benefits of leisure are endless.

The potential benefits to the Durham Community are support and cultural understanding and harmony. DPR is now and will continue to provide lifelines for the elderly, connect families, and support youth. Having an agency that is one of less than 60 in the country of Nationally Accredited agencies will be a source of pride for the Durham Community. Salisbury, Cary and Asheville are the only agencies in North Carolina that are accredited.

One of the economic impacts of being accredited is increasing the likelihood of being awarded grant funds, sponsorships and aligning larger scale partnerships with support agencies. Another potential benefit is a reduction in crime. Other potential economic benefits include enhanced land values, reduced health care costs and DPR could be a catalyst for increased tourism.

Currently DPR has met 30 of the required 137 accreditation standards. Any citizen who has questions, comments or who would like to volunteer to assist the Department in achieving this honor is encouraged to contact Gina Morais at (919) 560-4355 extension 207 or via email at Gina.Paul@durhamnc.gov.

HERITAGE PARKS

Coordinator: Beth Highley (919) 471-1623, beth.highley@durhamnc.gov

West Point on the Eno Park and Leigh Farm Park make up the City of Durham's Heritage parks. These significant natural and historic parks provide opportunities for passive recreational pursuits such as picnicking, fishing, hiking, outdoor nature study, and cultural history programming.

■ Leigh Farm Park

Although this park is currently undeveloped, call Beth Highley at 471-1623 to find out more about what is planned for this park site in the future.

■ West Point on the Eno

This 388-acre natural and historic park is located along a two-mile stretch of the scenic Eno River, six miles north of downtown Durham. Take a step back in time to Durham's early beginnings by touring the working Grist Mill, the 1850's McCown-Mangum House, and the Hugh Mangum Museum of Photography. These historic buildings are open 1-5 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, March 11-December 10, 2006. Admission is free. Weekday tours of the buildings can be arranged in advance by calling (919) 471-1623. You can also enjoy a leisurely picnic and stroll around the grounds, or take a hike through the woods on one of the park trails. Feel free to bring your canoe or raft and experience the beauty of the Eno River. The park gates are open daily, year-round, from 8 a.m. to dark. Call Beth Highley for further information.

■ McCown-Mangum House at West Point

This restored 1850's farmhouse is perfect for small gatherings such as weddings, receptions, and meetings. Special features include: rooms sheathed in the original heart-pine boards; brick patio; roomy kitchen; restrooms; heat/AC; porches; gardens; and a quaint atmosphere. For rental and reservation information, call (919) 560-4358.

■ Amphitheatre at West Point

This secluded area nestled in the woods is the perfect setting for company picnics, festivals, concerts, performances, and other large group gatherings. The facility can accommodate up to 4,000 people and includes a large open field, lawn seating, stage, electricity, water, and ample parking. Call Beth Highley to arrange a visit, or for rental and reservation information.

■ City Lakes

Lake Michie and Little River Lake in northern Durham County offers recreational fishing and boating. Both lakes are open on Friday, Saturday and Sunday from 6:30 a.m. - 6:00 p.m., March 17-November 12, 2006. In June, July and August, the lakes will be open until 8 p.m..

Personal boats and motors are not allowed on Little River Lake - boats and electric motors are available for rent. During open hours, further information can be obtained by calling Lake Michie boathouse at 477-3906 or the Little River Lake boathouse at 477-7889.

Park Development Projects

All park development projects are interesting, but some may be more unusual than others. Durham is fortunate in having two unique park projects underway right now: Leigh Farm and the Farmers' Market.

Leigh Farm is located in southwestern Durham, near NC 54. The site itself is 56 acres of land, some owned by the City and some owned by the State and leased to the City. On the site is a collection of historic buildings, listed in the National Register of Historic Sites. The buildings are the heart of what was once a much larger farm site. The main house, once the home of Richard Stanford Leigh, was built in 1837.

Other structures are typical of working farms in the early nineteenth century: corn cribs, tobacco barns, a carriage house, a well house, and cabins built by African-American enslaved workers. Probably the most unique structure on site is the cabin with a rare stick and mud built chimney.

The City is hiring a firm specializing in historic renovation to assess the structures' condition and make recommendations for needed repairs. Several of the buildings, including the main house, are still being lived in by rental tenants. The firm will also suggest what facilities—such as parking, trails, and restrooms—will be needed to make the site able to be opened to the public for visitation and tours.

The Farmers' Market is a joint project of the City and several private, non-profit agencies—including the Farmers Market, SEEDS, and Durham Central Park, Inc. The goal is a permanent structure that will serve as a permanent home for the Durham Farmers' Market (which currently operates from April through November out of the Measurement, Inc. parking lot on Morris St.).

The structure has been designed as an open semi-circle, with a high wooden clerestory roof and a concrete floor. It will be located in Durham Central Park, between Foster St. and the former Roney St. While it will serve the Market on Saturday mornings, it will also serve as an outdoor event venue, or even a group-size picnic shelter, at other times and in other seasons. Groundbreaking for the Farmers' Market is slated for January, 2006. Connecting the Market structure with the rest of Central Park, and downtown, is the recently-completed Downtown Trail portion of the North/South Greenway. This portion of the trail runs from the end of the American Tobacco Trail at Morehead St. to the South Ellerbe Creek Trail at Trinity Ave. (the short section between Ramseur St. and Chapel Hill St. is still under construction along with the rest of that area of downtown).

For more information on Durham Parks & Recreation's Capital Improvements Projects visit us online at www.durhamnc.gov/cip/

Help Us Keep Our Parks Beautiful

Visit Twin Lakes Park's new artificial turf field off Chandler Road in Durham.

Spring is just around the corner and that means more time outdoors! We hope this will include the use of your Parks. DPR is working hard to accommodate citizens and leagues who want to use the soccer fields and baseball fields. We are aware that we don't have enough fields to meet the demand. The passage of the November 2005 Bond provides us with the funding to create more fields and renovate those that have been worn down. We hope to have several fields renovated this spring.

We appreciate your assistance in helping us to maintain Durham's athletic fields and parks for all citizens. It is my personal goal to make all of our ball fields the pride of the City. This will take time, but I think it's a goal that can be achieved through good planning, a little bit of elbow grease, and most importantly, with the assistance of our citizens. Our goal as a department is to provide the community with opportunities to PLAY MORE!

Your Public Servant,
Joe D. Medina, Sr.
